Sponsorship

How can you support ICCB?

- Put up stands outside the Town Hall to take donations for items that characterise your country
- Past Bazaars have included teddy bears, hand - painted scarves, embroidered gift bags, fabric, glass decor, jewelry, quilts, Christmas decorations, food products, games and much more!
- Goods and money for the stands are donated from sponsors, any monetary contribution made to an individual country stand will be added to the total sum raised by the stand, including sale of lottery tickets
- Donate items to the IWAV stands - food court, angel boutique, art corner
- If a country cannot take on a whole stand by themselves, 2-3 can combine their stands or be part of IWAV stand
- We can also offer help in running the stand, but the Embassy carries the main responsibility for the stand

Sponsorship

Why does ICCB need cash sponsors?

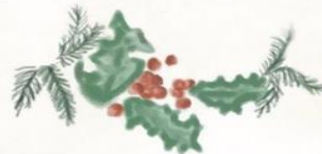

- – cash sponsors
 - Who can donate? Foreign and Lithuanian businesses, private individuals and Foundations
 - Where the money goes ? 100% of donations to finance projects. ICCB visits the site before and after, reporting on the findings
 - What are the benefits for donors? Contributor, Main Sponsor, Strategic Partner, Benefactor. Deadline for logos in printed materials (all positions will be sent by email)
 - What is the legal process? Legal procedure and documentation

Allocation of stands

- IWAV has the right to have stands at the Bazaar without application
- When all applications have been received the committee will know the number of wanted stands
- If there are more applications for big stands than it is possible to accommodate, the committee will give preference to participants according to the result of the last three years' achieved in the indoor stands (those with best result come first)
- The place of each country stand will be decided by lottery, big and small stands separately

Entertainment and Press

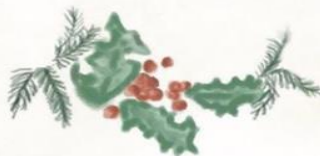

- Please let us know if you want to propose any entertainment
- Invite the press of your country to report about you and the Christmas Bazaar in your national press

The Second General meeting on – Monday October 25th

The Third General meeting on – Monday November 29th

EVERSHEDS SALADŽIUS

“Art is a language that is universal in a sense, very closely linked to the harmony that lurks in each of us. We all have gardens of love and beauty in ourselves, we just need to see them,” – Sigitas Staniūnas.

IWAV is inviting to a private event at the Vilnius Town Hall on Rotušės Square Sunday 12:00 October 3rd

This exclusive exhibition is an overview of the artist, Sigitas Staniūnas, overviewing the last 30 years of his journey showcasing his most important and latest works.

We will also have an opportunity to meet the new Director of the Town Hall, Perlis Vaisieta.

*This is a free family friendly event.
